 After threading your needle, pick up 7 Peanut beads on your needle then pick up 1 pearl. Test to make sure that 7 peanuts fit around half of your pearl. Leave 6" of a tail on the thread.

2. Run your needle back through the same path as before. Go through the peanuts and come out of the pearl.

3. Sew through the first peanut again.

4. Pick up 7 more Peanut beads. Complete the circle around the pearl by then sewing through the first peanut and pulling the thread snug.

5. For added strength, you can sew around the circle again.

6. To make the connecting link, pick up 3 peanut beads and sew through the first peanut you came out of going the same direction. Do not change direction.

7. Pull the thread snug.

8. Sew through the next 2 peanuts in the connecting link.

This completes one link and sets the design up for the next link.
